

Utility Review Board Hearing: October 2018
October 9, 2018

Account:                      Talt Malone                      1338 Pennsylvania Ave.

Dispute:                      Mr. Malone disputes past due bill at this address. He claims he did not live at the residence. Stated that he resided in Weirton at the time. Applications were presented by the Utility Department with Mr. Malone signatures that looked very similar to the signature on the application for Penns. Ave. application. Social Security numbers matched as well. Board requested proof of residence at the Weirton location as well as other residencies during July 2010 and February 2013 by Friday, October 12, 2018.

Decision:                      Mr. Malone did not provide proof of residency for the above mentioned time frame. The Board denied the petition. The balance of $690.26 is owed by Mr. Malone.

October 23, 2018

Account:                      Victoria Gilliam                      1139 Wellesley Ave.

Dispute:                      Property was vacant and the water was off at the curb box since June, 2017. In January 2018, neighbor called and said they heard water running. Water Dept. verified that the water was off at the curb but had no access to the house. The next day, Ms. Gilliam said that a pipe burst and she turned the water off at the valve. There was consumption of 52,000 gallons. Ms. Gilliam is requesting some relieve on the bill.

Decision:                      In accordance with Section X.B of the City of Steubenville's water policy, no relief can be given since relief was not requested within the 60 day timeframe.

Account:                      William Bowers                      4401 Country Club Dr. #33
