SUBJECT: Boil Advisory for the 4600 block of Lexington

STEUBENVILLE – A Boil Water Advisory has been issued for the 4600 block of Lexington and anyone in this area that may have experienced Low Water Pressure. Until further notice, consumers should vigorously boil, for at least one minute, any water used for drinking (including water used to make ice), cooking or oral hygiene.

This advisory has been issued do to a line break in the area. The Steubenville Water Department is collecting samples in the area to be analyzed. Once sample results are satisfactory, a press release will be issued to remove the Boil Water Advisory.

If there are any questions, please call 740-283-6041.
