SUBJECT: Road Closure

STEUBENVILLE- On Friday September 13, 2019 a section of the alley between the 300 block Maxwell and Lawson will be closed due to a sink hole. This portion of the road will be closed through the weekend while the city performs investigation of the sinkhole and possible repairs. The road will be accessible from the North and South to the point of closure. We thank the residents of Steubenville for their patience while this work is being completed.
